ELECTION COMMISSION

South Carolina State Certified Poll Clerk Program Application Pilot Program 2024

Purpose of the Program: To improve training and consistency statewide; to provide a more thorough, hands-on experience for clerks that builds both skill and confidence for managing a polling location and election day issues.

This is a three-day training that will take place in Columbia, SC, at the State Election Commission. More details will be provided to those who are selected to participate.

Please submit your completed application to: training@elections.sc.gov

Applications must be received no later than 5 p.m. on Monday, September 30th.
