

What is a Runoff?

A runoff is necessary when no candidate wins a majority of votes cast in the primary. The two candidates who received the most votes in the primary advance to the runoff.

Fast Facts on Runoffs

The winner of the runoff will advance to the General Election in November.

If you voted in a party's primary, you may vote only in the runoff of the same party. You may not vote in another political party's runoff.

If you did not vote in either primary, you have the option of voting in either party's runoff.
